Discover Timisoara!

Timisoara is the capital city of Timis County and the main economic, social and cultural center in Western Romania. The city assimilated the influences of the two former imperial capitals (Vienna and Budapest), being the first city in the Habsburg Monarchy with street lighting (1760) and the first European city to be lit by electric street lamps in 1884.

Your next destination is a city that will inspire, entertain, and fill your heart with the cultural essence of Europe. Welcome to Timisoara, the European Capital of Culture in 2023!

CENTRAL POINTS /ATTRACTIONS IN TIMISOARA

Timisoara Orthodox Metropolitan Cathedral

Is the most important building for the Orthodox Romanians in the Banat - Romania region and one of the most popular destinations in all of Romania.

Located in the front of the city center, the cathedral is found at the most strategic and focal point of the entire city. The Cathedral houses some of the rarest relics and most important religious artifacts found in the entire land.

Unirii Square

Is located in the center of Timisoara, inside the walls of the former city and is the oldest square in the city, made in Baroque style.

Unirii square hosts important objectives, such as: the Roman Catholic Cathedral, the Baroque Palace, the Serbian Orthodox Cathedral, the Monument of the Holy Trinity, other architectural monuments.

Theresia Bastion

Named after the Austrian Empress Maria Theresa, is the largest preserved piece of defensive wall of the Austrian-Hungarian fortress of Timișoara. Built between 1732–1734. Today it is used as a passage, but it also houses commercial spaces, and two permanent exhibitions of the Museum of Banat, the Information and Communications Technology "Violin - a passion for life", and the Ethnography Museum Village.

CENTRAL POINTS /ATTRACTIONS IN TIMISOARA

The National Opera House

Being established in 1946, is a cultural public institution subordinated to the Ministry of Culture. In 2004, the Opera House received the title of National Opera House, as recognition of his special merits, for all hard work in the service of Romanian art and culture in the country and abroad.

The Romanian Revolution of December 1989, started at Timisoara, began and developed in the building of the Opera House.

The Timisoara Art Museum

The building, located in Unirii Square, is a historical building that dates back to the 18th century. It was initially designed as an administrative building. It started hosting the Art Museum in 2006.

The museum's permanent collections include: contemporary art, decorative art, a collection of European drawings and engravings dating from the 15th to the 19th century.

Bega River

The river brings vibe to the city. The banks of the river have lots of bars and cafes with restaurant boats and bars.

To admire the places, and parks (like The Rose Park, The Children's Park or Alpinet Park) that are situated on both banks of the river you can take the public bus boat and make a short journey, Timisoara being the first city on the Romanian territory with water transport for passengers.
